RE: In re DELPHI CORPORATION, et al.,
USDC, SDNY Bankruptcy Court Case No. 05-44481 (RDD)
Our File: 019818.0002

Dear Ms. Li:

Following up on our recent phone conversations, enclosed please find a copy of the Affidavit of Legal Ordinary Course Professional that McGlinchey Stafford, PLLC, attempted to file in to the record of the captioned matter in late December of last year. As we discussed, this filing has yet to appear on the Court's docket, despite the fact that it was mailed out for filing on December 20, 2006. This date is reflected on both the transmittal letter and the Certificate of Service (both are enclosed).

This pleading was served on all involved parties by U.S. Mail, as indicated on the Certificate of Service. Due to this service mailing's close proximity to the holidays, it is hard to estimate the exact date of receipt by counsel, but all parties should have received service by December 31, 2006. I have confirmed that our client's accounting office received a forwarded copy of the enclosed on January 22, 2007, but that is all of the receipt information that I was able to yield.

Per our conversation, it is my understanding that these copies should suffice to effect the docketing of our Affidavit. I am also enclosing a second copy of the Affidavit, which I would ask you to conform and return to me in the enclosed, self-addressed stamped envelope.
